

Civic Affects

Lecture series 2015- 2016

Organized by Dr. Marci Cottingham & Prof. dr. Jan Willem Duyvendak

September 25th: Political Mood of the Dutch

Kriterion zaal K2 14:00- 16:30, drinks afterwards

Speakers: Paul Dekker (SCP), Esther Schrijver, Christian Bröer and Jan Willem Duyvendak.

The first lecture will deal with recent research carried out on the "Political Mood" of the Dutch. In cooperation with the Netherlands Institute for Social Research (SCP), we will show how the 'civic affects' of the Dutch have developed in the past years.

November 13th: Emotions and Social Movements

UB Doelenzaal 14:00- 16:30, drinks afterwards

Speaker: James Jasper

The second lecture will be an event during which we celebrate the publication of two new books that specifically deal with the role of emotions in social movements. As the editor (together with Jan Willem Duyvendak) of Players and Arenas. The interactive dynamics of protest and Breaking the State Down. Protesters engaged (Amsterdam University Press 2015) professor Jim Jasper will speak about emotions and collective action, with responses and contributions by the book authors.

The lecture series is sponsored by the interdisciplinary research programme Emotions and Institutions led by faculty professor Jan Willem Duyvendak
