

Seminar “Homing the Dutch”

Politics and the Planning of Belonging

November 4th, 15:00- 17:30, drinks afterwards

Potgieterzaal UB, Singel 425

Drawing on the recently published Special Issue of Home Cultures, edited by Jan Willem Duyvendak & Fenneke Wekker, this seminar aims to address the following discussions: How does Dutch governance stimulate feelings of home and belonging in public space? Does social cohesion, integration, and livability increase thanks to interventions in public space by Dutch policymakers and professionals?

For an overview of the special issue: <http://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rfhc20/current>

Program:

Chaired by Jan Willem Duyvendak

15:00- 15:30: Registration & coffee-tea

15:30- 15:50 Fenneke Wekker

15: 50- 16:10 Leeke Reinders

16:10- 16:30 Ivan Nio

16:30- 16:50 Fenne Pinkster

16:50- 17:30 Round-table discussion

17:30- 18:30 Drinks & Finger Food

Register before October 28th: F.El-Hajjari@uva.nl

This seminar is sponsored by the Center of Urban Studies, the programme group Political Sociology, and the Interdisciplinary Research Program Emotions and Institutions led by faculty professor Jan Willem Duyvendak.

For information: w.g.j.duyvendak@uva.nl & F.E.A.Wekker@uva.nl
